

Working Group on Leafy Vegetables – workplan follow-up at 06 November 2012

(based on the Summary of workplan till the end of Phase VIII, page 27 in Report of the Third Meeting of the Vegetables Network, 10-12 November 2009, Catania, Italy - Full report available from [http://www.ecpgr.cgiar.org/index.php?id=644&user_biodiversitypublications_pi1\[showUid\]=4720](http://www.ecpgr.cgiar.org/index.php?id=644&user_biodiversitypublications_pi1[showUid]=4720))

Activity	Responsibility	Date	Status 06 November 2012
Descriptor lists for Eruca and Valerianella available on the ECPGR Web site	Rob Van Treuren	Dec. 2009	Done
Compilation of status overviews of collections	Kateřina Smékalová	Dec. 2009	Done
Data of available Lactuca accessions from Israel included in the databases	Alex Beharav	Dec. 2010
Gaps for Spanish accessions in the Leafy Vegetables Databases identified and filled	Jaime Cebolla Cornejo	Dec. 2010	Done (no updates were needed)
Descriptor lists and regeneration protocols available for Asparagus	Kateřina Smékalová	Dec. 2010
Data on genebank operations available from collection holders	All WG members	Dec. 2010	Data were collected from 4 members.
Finalization of the EU GENRES project	Project consortium	Dec. 2010	Done
Updated status overview of collections available	Kateřina Smékalová	Oct. 2011
List of suggested minimum standards for genebank operations developed	Rob Van Treuren	Oct. 2011
Potential AEGIS accessions identified for lettuce and spinach	All WG members	Oct. 2011	Data were collected from 5 members
WG meeting and workshop on molecular markers in Slovenia	Jelka Šustar-Vozlič and Rob Van Treuren	Oct./Nov. 2011	Postponed to 2013 (to be confirmed, no planning yet).
List of minimum standards for genebank operations finalized	All WG members	Dec. 2011
Most appropriate accessions identified for lettuce and spinach	All WG members	Dec. 2013
Potential AEGIS accessions identified for chicory and minor leafy vegetables	All WG members	Dec. 2013	